Not every celebration at Bailey Wick Farm Wedding & Event Venue involves a wedding dress. In fact, a large share of the farm's recent reviews come from baby showers, which says a lot about how comfortable and welcoming the space is for smaller family gatherings. For parents-to-be in the Roanoke Valley, Daleville and local wedding venues Cloverdale, the farm in Fincastle offers a setting that feels a world away from a restaurant back room.

Hosts love the flexibility of the barn. It is large enough to set up a gift table, a dessert display and a games area without crowding, and its heating and air conditioning keep the guest of honor comfortable no matter the season. Restrooms with televisions and Wi-Fi are a small detail that expectant mothers often appreciate more than anyone else.

Reviewers have described the experience as sweet memories to last a lifetime, and the farm setting is a big part of that. Guests can step out onto the covered porch, sit in a rocking chair and enjoy the view of the Blue Ridge Mountains, which makes a shower feel like a real occasion rather than a quick afternoon event.
