Every participant purchases the same case, and the game reveals the contents all at once. The player who gets the highest-valued skin (based on market value) wins the round and takes the pool of products. If a tie occurs, the reward is split evenly or granted to the gamer whose skin has a rarer float value.

The mode is available both through the in-game "Case Battle" menu on the official CS2 customer and through third-party platforms that host automated lobbies. The core appeal depends on the social aspect: gamers can chat, track each other's luck, and contend for more valuable drops than they would on a solo open.
