What is the Aviator Casino Game?

Aviator is a social multiplayer crash game defined by a simple yet thrilling property: an aircraft takes off, and a multiplier coefficient starts rising. The objective is easy-- squander before the airplane flies away. If a player stops working to squander before the random "crash," their bet is lost.

Unlike traditional casino games controlled by reels and paylines, Aviator depends on a real-time curve that rises indefinitely up until it randomly crashes. The game's appeal depends on its mix of fast rounds (lasting anywhere from a couple of seconds to a minute) and the tension of deciding whether to take a small, surefire profit or claim a huge payout.

How Aviator Works: Step-by-Step

Playing Aviator is incredibly uncomplicated, making it accessible to both amateurs and experienced gamblers. Here is a breakdown of a basic game round:

1. Place a Bet: Before the round begins, gamers place one or two bets at the same time within a specific time window.
2. See the Plane Take Off: Once the round starts, the plane rises, and the multiplier boosts from 1.00 x upwards.
3. Money Out: Players must strike the "Cash Out" button before the plane flies away.
4. Collect Winnings: If effective, the initial stake is increased by the cash-out multiplier, and the earnings are instantly credited to the account.
5. The Crash: If the aircraft flies away before a cash-out occurs, the bet is surrendered.
