- a warranty that covers more than just the glass.

That is why questions about energy efficiency, product quality, and local code are all connected, not separate decisions.

You are buying door replacement insulation, sun control, weather resistance, and a cleaner seal around the opening.