The Legal Pathway: How to Get Your License the Right Way

If you want an authentic, database-registered Polish motorist's license without running the risk of legal problem, you need to go through the official channels. While it requires effort and time, the process is straightforward when broken down into manageable actions.

Step 1: Fulfill Residency and Age Requirements

Before beginning, applicants need to prove legal residency in Poland. Usually, this implies holding a permanent or short-lived home license, a visa, or EU citizenship with a registered address (zameldowanie) in Poland for at least 185 days. You need to also satisfy the minimum age requirement for your preferred vehicle classification (e.g., 18 years for Category B).

Step 2: Obtain a Medical Certificate

You can not drive legally without a clean bill of health.

- Visit an authorized occupational medicine doctor (lekarz uprawniony do badań kierowców).
- The physician will evaluate your vision, hearing, and overall physical and psychological physical fitness to drive.
- Once passed, you will receive a signed medical certificate needed for your application.

Step 3: Get a PKK Number (Profil Kandydata na Kierowcu)

The PKK is a special candidate profile number issued by the regional municipal office (Urząd Miasta) or district workplace (Starostwo Powiatowe).To get your PKK, you must submit:

- A finished application.
- The medical certificate.
- A passport-sized photograph.
- Evidence of legal residency in Poland (passport and house card).
- A copy of your present motorist's license (if exchanging a foreign license).

Step 4: Complete State-Approved Training (If Applicable)

Depending on your circumstance, you might need to enroll in a state-accredited driving school (Ośrodek Szkolenia Kierowców - OSK):

- For novice drivers: You should finish theoretical classes (typically 30 hours) and practical driving lessons (generally 30 hours) in Polish or English (though English-language trainers might cost more).
- For license exchanges: If you are exchanging specific foreign licenses (e.g., from non-EU nations), you might be exempt from training and only needed to pass the examinations.

Step 5: Pass the State Examinations

Once your training is complete, you need to pass 2 examinations at the Provincial Road Traffic Center (Wojewódzki Ośrodek Ruchu Drogowego - WORD):

1. The Theoretical Exam: A computer-based test covering traffic rules, road indications, and safety procedures. (Available in English, Polish, and German).
2. The Practical Exam: An on-road driving test carried out in traffic, accompanied by an examiner and a translator (if needed).

Step 6: Collect Your Genuine License

After passing both exams, the WORD center updates the nationwide database. You should then pay the issuance cost at your regional community office. Within 1 to 3 weeks, your physical, highly protected, biometric plastic card will be ready for pickup.

Exchanging a Foreign License in Poland

If you currently hold a driver's license provided by your home country, you might not require to begin from scratch. Poland has bilateral contracts with numerous nations, allowing for a direct exchange.

Files Needed for Exchange:

- Your original foreign motorist's license (in addition to a sworn translation into Polish).
- Evidence of legal remain in Poland (residence card/visa).
