FAQ About Dumpster Rental

How long can I keep a dumpster rental in Seattle?

Most dumpster rental companies in Seattle allow you to keep the dumpster for up to 7-14 days. You can often extend the rental period for an additional fee, but it's best to confirm specific terms with the rental provider.

What items are prohibited in a dumpster rental?

Prohibited items in dumpster rentals typically include hazardous materials like chemicals, batteries, tires, and appliances. Always check with your rental company for a complete list of restricted items to avoid extra charges.

How do I choose the right size dumpster for my project?

Choosing the right size dumpster involves estimating the volume of waste you'll generate. Common sizes include 10, 20, and 30 yards, with larger sizes suitable for major renovations or construction projects. Consult with the rental company for guidance.

Can I place a dumpster in the street in Seattle?

In Seattle, placing a dumpster on the street typically requires a permit from the city. It's important to check local regulations and obtain any necessary permits to avoid fines or complications during your project.

Choosing the Right Size for Your Container

One of the most tricky aspects of renting a dumpster is selecting the right size. At BigBin Dumpster Rental, we provide various sizes ranging from small 10-yard containers for spring cleaning to larger 40-yard dumpsters ideal for major construction projects. Identifying your waste volume is crucial to avoiding unnecessary costs. Our friendly staff is eager to assist you in making the best decision for your project.

How to Make Arrangements for Your Dumpster Rental

Once you've decided on the dimensions of your dumpster, it's time to make arrangements for its arrival. One important step is to identify a suitable spot for placement. Ideally, the location should be reachable and allow for ample space to maneuver. Additionally, consider any local authorization requirements, especially if you live in a densely populated area Dumpster Rental near Seattle or where street parking is limited. BigBin Dumpster Rental can assist you with this to ensure a smooth experience from start to finish.
