How Knife Opening Works

CS: GO knife cases are consumable items that can be bought from the in-game market or from external traders. Each case consists of a selection of weapon skins, with a small opportunity-- typically less than 1%-- of yielding a knife. The real opening mechanic is uncomplicated:

1. Purchase a case-- Cases can be purchased from the Steam Community Market or from other gamers.
2. Get a key-- Most cases need a particular key (e.g., the "CS: GO Case Key"). Keys are also readily available for purchase.
3. Open the case-- Using the in-game "Open" menu, the player invests the case and key to reveal a random item. The result is figured out by a server-side random number generator (RNG) that complies with fixed possibility tables.

The RNG is transparent: each case notes its "drop rates" openly, which are imposed by Valve. However, the precise circulation of unusual products within those rates is not revealed.

Drop Rates and Odds

While Valve releases the basic odds for each case, the exact possibility of receiving a specific knife differs. Below is an example of the published chances for a popular case-- the "CS: GO Weapon Case 30"-- which is known to include numerous knife types.

Product Rarity	Approximate Drop Rate
Mil-Spec (Blue)	~ 80%
Restricted (Purple)	~ 15%
Classified (Pink)	~ 4%
Covert (Red)	~ 0.65%
Rare Special Item (Knife)	~ 0.26%

Note: The precise possibility for a specific knife (e.g., Karambit|Fade) is a portion of the uncommon unique item swimming pool.

These numbers illustrate that the frustrating majority of openings will produce basic skins, not knives. The low possibility makes knife openings a high-risk, high-reward activity.

3. Secret Cost-- Keys undergo price inflation. Players ought to factor essential prices into their overall expenditure when assessing ROI.

- Comprehend the Odds-- Recognize that the vast bulk of openings will not yield a knife. The expected return is negative.
- Prevent Chasing Losses-- If a player spends a fixed budget without acquiring a knife, it is advisable to stop rather than effort to "win back" losses.
- Think about Trading-- Once a knife is obtained, gamers can hold onto it expecting future price gratitude or trade it instantly for other items or cash.

Typical Misconceptions

- "The video game is rigged"-- While the RNG is random, the released odds are implemented server-side. There is no evidence of methodical adjustment.
- "Opening at a particular time improves chances"-- The random number generator runs individually of the time of day. No timing method can alter the mathematical probabilities.
