Rarity Tier	Approximate Drop Rate (%)
Common	70.0
Uncommon	20.0

Mythic	2.0
Legendary	0.5

Keep in mind: Exact probabilities can vary by title and might be adjusted by the publisher over time.

In physical secret boxes, manufacturers typically divulge a "guaranteed value" for each tier, but the specific distribution of products is regularly kept personal. Customers should treat any case-opening purchase as a kind of entertainment rather than an investment.

Economic Impact: Value versus Cost

Direct Purchase vs. Case Opening

Factor	Direct Purchase	Case Opening
Upfront Cost	Repaired price (e.g., £ 5 for a skin)	Usually lower per effort (e.g., £ 2.50 per open), but repeated attempts collect
Worth Certainty	You know precisely what you receive	Random; may receive items worth far less or much more than the cost
Threat Profile	Low threat, high certainty	High danger, low certainty
Home entertainment Value	Moderate; fulfillment of getting a desired product	High; adventure of possible rare pull
Prospective ROI	None (unless item appreciates)	Possible (rare product may be resold at greater market rate)
